

THE TRUSTEES OF THE CONCORD CARLISLE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

KENNETH D. ANDERSON: Life long resident of Concord and a graduate of Concord Carlisle Regional High School (CCHS) with pension consulting business in Concord and whose three children graduated from CCHS.

DORRIE BEAN: Long time resident of Concord whose four daughters all graduated from CCHS and who is active in the arts in Concord.

LAURA MULLINS CHELTON: Life long resident of Concord-Carlisle community and a graduate of CCHS with a mortgage origination business in Carlisle.

JEANNE DETEMPLE: Former teacher and educational researcher, and mother of CCHS graduate and daughter in Concord Public School.

ELAINE DICICCO: Retired teacher and principal at CCHS and a life long resident of Concord.

MOLLY Q. EBERLE: Former English teacher and development officer who works in fund raising and education and has lived in Concord more than 30 years.

BARBARA FISHER: Executive in an academic medical center in Worcester whose three children have graduated from CCHS.

DAVID GOULD: Retired admissions dean at Brandeis with two daughters who graduated from CCHS and who now assists students in the application process for college.

TERI HALE: An active volunteer in Concord public and private schools and mother of a 2003 graduate of CCHS.

MARY-ELISABETH JONES: Long time Concord resident with a career in residential real estate, who brings 25+ years of marketing expertise to the Board.

LINDSAY SMITH KAFKA: Former practicing lawyer as well as a life long resident of Concord and graduate of CCHS.

JOHN F. MEE: Long time Concord resident with a law practice in Newton and active community volunteer, whose three children are CCHS graduates.

LUCY V. MILLER: Long time higher education and health care fund raising administrator whose daughter is a graduate of CCHS.

AL POWERS: Retired chemistry teacher at CCHS who resides in Carlisle and is a major force behind the operation of the Concord Carlisle Scholarship Fund.

PAUL E. RESSLER: Long time Concord resident with a career in the high tech business whose children graduated from CCHS.

TOM RUTLEDGE: Concord resident who brings his investment skills to the board.

EDWARD H. SONN: Carlisle resident and retired high tech executive whose three children graduated from CCHS and who is actively involved with St. Irene Parish.

PRISCILLA WHITE STURGES: Lifelong resident of Concord, CCHS alumna, self-employed graphic designer in Concord, and mother of two recent CCHS graduates.

CHRISTOPHER E. WILSON: Long time Concord resident with career in finance and enterprise management who, with his wife, has raised eight CCHS alumni over a period spanning twenty-two consecutive years of CCHS experience.

January 2011